IMPORTANT NOTE FOR HEADSET USERS:

Headsets with a feature control switch that are approved for use with the 5220 IP phone must be installed in the dedicated headset jack (the jack nearest the front of the phone). TIPS FOR YOUR COMFORT AND SAFETY

Don't cradle the handset!

Prolonged use of the handset can lead to neck, shoulder, or back discomfort, especially if you cradle the handset between your ear and shoulder. If you use your phone a lot, you may find it more comfortable to use a headset. See the section on headset usage elsewhere in this guide for more information.

Protect your hearing

Your phone has a control for adjusting the volume of the handset receiver or headset. Because continuous exposure to loud sounds can contribute to hearing loss, keep the volume at a moderate level.

Adjusting the viewing angle

The stand built into your phone tilts to give you a better view of the keys and display.

To tilt your telephone for better viewing:

1. Press the release tabs on the sides of the stand.
2. Hinge the two front hooks and snap the two back hooks of the stand into either the upper or lower notches on the back of the phone.

Call Monitoring

This feature allows you to monitor another extension user's phone conversation, either with or without the user's knowledge.

If your system is programmed to notify users that they are being monitored, they hear a beep when monitoring begins. Users that have a display telephone also see your name and extension number in the display for the duration of the call.

When monitoring a call, you can listen to the conversation but you can't speak to either party, and they can't hear you. However, you can join the conversation by forming a three-party conference

A few conditions:

- The system may be programmed to disallow monitoring of any or all extensions.
- A user can only be monitored from one extension at a time. If you try to monitor someone who is already being monitored, you receive busy tone and BUSY appears in your display.
- If the user puts the caller on hold, transfers the call, or ends the call, you are disconnected and your monitoring session ends. Note that the system can be programmed to allow monitoring to continue while the call is on hold.
- While you are monitoring, you can't make or receive calls. Anyone who calls your telephone while you are monitoring receives busy tone. The caller can leave a callback, but is unable to camp on or override your monitoring session. If you want to place an outgoing call, you must first cancel your monitoring session.

To monitor a call:

1. Lift the handset.
2. Dial 45 followed by the number of the extension you wish to monitor.
If the user is on a call, INTRUDING followed by the user's extension number appears in your telephone display.

3. Press Trans/Conf to form a three-party conference with the user and the other party.

To use Door Opener:

- Press Door Opener or press 66.

Night/Day Service Switching

Office telephone systems are often placed into Night Service after regular hours. Calls then ring alternate answer points--either designated extensions or a night bell. Extension users can dial the Trunk Answer From Any Station (TAFAS) code to answer calls ringing the night bell.

If permitted by system programming, you can put the system into Day service or one of two night service modes, Night1 or Night2.

To switch between Night and Day Service:

- Press the NIGHT/DAY feature key. (See "Feature Key" for instructions on programming a feature key.)
In Night1 service, the light in the NIGHT/DAY feature key flashes slowly. In Night2 service it flashes rapidly. In Day service, the light is off.
